Pet Blessings at Church

St. Peter's Church would like to invite everyone to join us for an outdoor service This Sunday, Oct. 3rd, we will gather in front of the building for a St. Francis Day service. Bring your (well-behaved) pets for a special "Blessing of the Animals" and a pet medal at 9:00 a.m.

News You Can Use

- HATS OFF to Dr. Todd Levin of Chattanooga Allergy Clinic (parent of Hannah Levin, 1B), who visited both first grade classes for a special presentation on asthma and its treatment. This presentation was part of their recent study of the human body and body systems.
- SPIRIT STORE: Be sure and check Friday folders and backpacks for an "order form" and description of items in our new school spirit store. Orders may be placed via the form. Contact Margarita Renegar if you have any questions at margaritascott@comcast.net.
- HANDBOOK CORRECTIONS: Please correct the following e-mail addresses: Ginny Sanders and Dale DuBois (Dddubois1@att.net); Sarah Richey (sasrichey@gmail.com); and Barbara Lattimore (jlattimore110@gmail.com).
- DON'T FORGET: This Wednesday, October 6 is a teacher inservice day with a noon dismissal. Students may come out-of-uniform. *Extended Care is available for regular users.
- SPROUTS: This Tuesday is the first SPROUTS field trip-- to the Teaching Garden at the Chattanooga Food Bank! Permission slips should be coming home in backpacks, but email Jaime Melton (jmelton@stpeters.org) if you haven't received yours.
- RUNNERS OF THE WEEK: Ms. Blaes is proud to announce the star runners of the week: third grade!

Food For Thought

Be sure and stop by the Ronald McDonald House Autumn Children's Festival this weekend. The event is held at the Tennessee Riverpark on Saturday from 10-4 and Sunday from 1-5. Stop by the Care Mobile and visit parent (and pediatrician) Dr. Ginny Sanders, who will be measuring BMI (body mass index) and discussing nutrition and risk factors of childhood obesity.
